DETAILED ACTION

Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 1-5, 9-11, 13-17, 19-26, and 49-66 are allowable over the prior art of record because the prior art of record fails to teach or fairly suggest recording related action identifier on a first and second computer system where a dependant action is undone, corrected, and replaced, these limitations are indicated in claim 1 as "wherein execution of the first action generates a first result of the first computer application, execution of the second action generates a second result of the second computer application, executing the second action management operation includes modifying the second result of the second action, and executing the first action management operation includes fixing the first action, the fixing including: undoing a dependent action, the dependent action being dependent on the first action; undoing the first action; receiving a corrected action corresponding to the first action; executing the corrected action; and redoing the dependent action", and claims 19, 25, and 57 as "wherein executing the selected at least one action management operation on the recorded action of the second computer-related source comprises: identifying the related action identifier; comparing the related action identifier to the recorded action of the second computer-related source; and executing the selected at least one action
